

Presentation Criterion

Criteria	Excellent (80-100%)
Content Mastery & Q&A (15%)	Demonstrates expertise; explains complex tech simply; answers questions confidently and correctly.
Visual Aids / Slides (10%)	Visually engaging; high-quality graphics; minimal text (bullet points); consistent design.
Delivery & Teamwork (10%)	Engaging speakers; strong eye contact; smooth handovers between members; equal participation.
Time Management (5%)	Finished exactly within time limits ($\pm$ 1 min); pacing was perfect.

Presentation Criterion

Good (60-79%)
Good grasp of material; explains clearly; answers questions adequately but with some hesitation.
Clear slides; good balance of text and images; design is neat but standard.
Clear speaking voice; decent eye contact; handovers are functional; participation is mostly equal.
Slightly over/under time ($\pm$ 2-3 mins); had to rush the ending slightly.

Presentation Criterion

Satisfactory (50-59%)
Reads from notes; struggle to explain concepts without script; difficulty answering questions.
Slides are text-heavy; images are low quality or decorative only; formatting is inconsistent.
Monotone delivery; reading directly from cards/screen; one or two members dominate the talk.
Significantly over/under time; had to skip slides or ended way too early.

Presentation Criterion

Needs Improvement (<50%)	Score
Lack of knowledge; cannot answer basic questions; relies entirely on reading slides.	/2
"Wall of text"; hard to read; distracting background or font choices; missing visuals.	/2
Inaudible or mumbling; no eye contact; chaotic transitions; obvious lack of rehearsal.	/2
Disrespectful of time limits; cut off by instructor or barely used the allotted time.	/2
	/8